John S. Sayward, Editor.

TUESDAY, APRIL 6, 1852.

☞ The emigration of Chinese to California is greatly on the increase. During the past month six vessels have sailed, ten are preparing to leave, and more are required. The Alta California says of these singular men that many of them have recently returned to China. They landed in California a year or two ago, with a few packages of tea or rice, and by their industry, frugality, and strict attention to business, have all made money, and some of them amassed fortunes. At one time nearly all the restaurants in the city were conducted by Chinese. Latterly they have ddne nearly all the washing of the city. They have generally been a peaceable and orderly class of the community. They seldom have any legal difficulties, and very few breaches of the peace are committed by them. On their arrival in the Celestial Empire they will doubtless give a very favorable account of the golden land, and many more of their countrymen will try their fortunes, as the Chinese are not slow in following the example of their countrymen when money is the inducement.

A report was current at Canton of a battle having been fought, between the Imperial troops and the rebels, and of the former, in particular, having suffered severely. It has created some uneasiness among the Chinese. Were the provincial city of Kwangsi to fall into the hands of the rebels, Canton might be placed in some jeopardy.

☞ The lumbering teams in some localities have left the woods, and the Red Shirt fraternity begin to be numerous in our city, and some of them, we are sorry to say, contribute not rather badly. Rumsellers resort to very strange, very secret, and very dishonorable methods to dispose of their liquors. In one place there is a room fitted in the third story, secured by a heavy door and antiron bar. A man is set to watch, and as soon as any of the Police enter, intelligence of the fact is conveyed by a bell, the door is closed and barred, and the liquor thrown out of the pitchers before the officers can enter. There is more than one way, however, to convict such violators of the law. In other cases the liquor is kept in women's pockets, and hid in ceilings, but occasionally they get caught, and the vigilance and ingenuity of the Police will keep up with the changes of the times.

☞ Several persons have returned to New York from Panama, their tickets not being good for the passage. Among these are said to be a dozen belonging to Maine. One of them, Mr. Wilson, states that there are now between 2000 and 3000 persons at Panama in the deepest distress, who have arrived there from New York on board the Brother Jonathan, and other steamers, and for want of means are heither able to go on or return. That many of them are scarcely able to procure anything to eat, and have to sleep on the open air or in tents. Many are sick and dying, and many have died. Another of the individuals, who returned in the William Penn yesterday morning, states that he saw three dead bodies of some literally covered with vermin, having been left dead and graveless.

Affairs at Eastport.

EASTPORT, March 31st, 1852.

Our annual Town meeting, in which an unusual interest has been felt, came off yesterday. The boast has been made throughout this vicinity, that the Whigs of Eastport were destined to defeat at this election. A number of individuals who hang upon the Democratic party, and have lately been made

"To feel the nation drawl

have been loud in these prophecies, that we should be beaten, on account of the energetic and effective efforts of our Selectmen, and other prominent Whigs, in the enforcement of the Maine Law: but a sufficient number of Temperance men from among our opponents, who were determined that Whigs should not suffer for their fidelity to morality and law, voted with us, to offset the trifling defection in our ranks, and we elected an entire Whig board of Officers, with the exception of the Town Clerk, who lacked a single vote. The vote for Selectmen was as follows:

WARDS.		DEMOCRATS.
A. Hayden,	250	B. Bradbury,	158
E. Richardson,	198	R. Manter, Jr,	159
J. L. Bowman,	200	G. Stickney,	162

The other Officers were elected by majorities ranging from 35 to 100. An energetic Temperance man was chosen Police Officer, by a plurality of 48, over an opponent of the opposite stamp. An attempt to instruct the Selectmen against the appointment of an agent to sell liquor for medicinal and mechanical purposes, was voted down, and resolutions were passed commendatory of the law for the suppression of drinking houses and tippling shops, and instructing the town officers to enforce it.

Appropriations for town expenses, to the amount of $12,600, were voted, included in which is $4,500 for schools and school houses, in addition to $3000, to be raised by loan, for the erection of new school houses. So much for the cause of sound politics, Temperance, Education, and good order in the border town.

The favorite steamer Admiral, Capt. Wood, has resumed her place on the Boston and St. John route. During the winter she has been thoroughly repaired and refitted at an expense of $20,000. Her length has been increased 24 feet; an elegant saloon and some 20 or 30 state rooms have been added, and her accommodations for freight and passengers largely increased. The splendid bridal state rooms attract particular attention.

The Calais Company will have a fine new boat on the route in June. Some of our enterprising neighbors of that city, have purchased a small steamer now building at this place, to be fitted there intended to put her on the river above the city of the Stream. A purchase of machine wharf property has been made there, by the same parties, which is to be immediately improved for the accommodation of their boat. The Argus (of Calais) considers it a fortunate

...ness ladies, and will be ready to start soon on the Maid of Erin as her passages from St. John to Portland, gives the traveling community a weekly opportunity to test the difference between Provincial and American steamers, so the people are likely to be accommodated, whatever may be the effect on the pockets of stockholders.

A temperance law, singular only in some respects, has passed the lower house of the New Brunswick Legislature, by a vote of 19 to 14, and it is said will pass the Council, and receive the sanction of the Governor. The Provincial Assessing powers, which, with us, appertain solely to the General Government, the importation, irregularities, as well as the sale. Liquors are allowed to be imported only for the use of the importer, in other respects the bill is portentous similar to our famous, or infamous Maine Law. A violation of its provisions was liable to the case, by those interested in the St. John breweries, and finally Bass Ale and Porter were excepted from prohibition. This will cause much British gold to flow into their coffers, for the sale of all other liquors will be stopped, with all the stringencies of search warrants, imprisonments &c., of the Maine Law. Would that an impenetrable Chinese wall could be built around the Province. It is not any rash step, such as in the Province, it is not any rash step, such as in the Province, and will prove a bright omen for the future.

The Duration of Rosas.

The following particulars, of the movements of the armies of Rosas and Urquiza, and which resulted in the defeat and flight of the former, appear to be all that can be given until the reception of later intelligence from the Argentine Republic. It appears that the people hailed the approach of the liberating army, and joined for the overthrow of the Dictator.

The passage of the Parana by the liberating army under General Urquiza, commenced on the 24th of February, and was accomplished with the loss of but two men killed and 15 wounded. The crossing was made at a very convenient point, where the river is about a mile and a half wide, and a pretty strong current exists, with a rise and fall of about 20 feet. The army was brought together in one encampment, a settlement lately founded by Gordon, a native of the west end of Scotland, and one of the bravest of the Patriots, and both in a military and political point of view one of the most important in the Province. Gualeguay is situated on the Gualeguay river, which is navigable for small craft to the Parana, and is the capital of the department of the same name, and had previously revolted, after having assassinated their colonel, with the ultimate intention of joining their patron, Rosas. This division, however, who had quietly embarked in the rear of Urquiza under an express injunction, and with the full design to assassinate him in the first engagement, found their treachery detected, and experienced a speedy retribution, for no sooner was the discovery made than they attempted to desert, but were followed by a flood of Entrerian horse, quickly surrounded and cut to pieces on the spot, of the whole 600, only 78 succeeded in reaching Buenos Ayres, and some 60 odd escaped into the pampas.

To return to the battle. In this position the conflict commenced, and the whole of each line was soon engaged in a hand-to-hand struggle, which lasted several hours, and ended in Rosas's front being broken, and giving way in every direction, leaving Urquiza master of the field. Rosas, who was thought to have been killed, but who was never actually in the field of battle, is now on board an English steamer, whose ...was to take him to Pernambuco, where he would if possible, join the steamer Tevior, and proceed to London.

The foreign agents in Buenos Ayres, at the request of General Mitchilla, Governor of the city of Buenos Ayres, awaited upon General Urquiza at Palermo, (late the country seat of Rosas) to intercede for a suspension of hostilities, on the ground that the city was prepared to surrender. Urquiza replied to these gentlemen that the people of Buenos Ayres had nothing to fear from the victors, because they came to destroy the system of terror and to re-establish the dominion of the laws, and respect the rights of the people.

Amongst the people of note who are going down from this city to the River Plate by the Prince, is General Paz, who is at last about to resume the position which honorable character justly merits, as the new era now commencing for his much-loved country, the Argentine Republic.

The foreign legionaries in Montevideo have laid down their arms, and deposited them in the hands of the government authorities.

These brave fellows have returned to their work and their professions with a vast deal more eagerness than they quitted them some years ago, to defend the city which gave them its hospitality.

Gen. Urquiza promptly followed up his victory by investing the city of Buenos Ayres—deprived of the presence of its governor, and of its army, it could not make any prolonged defence; steps were being taken by the province to call together a Representative Assembly of all the States of the Argentine Confederation, for the purpose of forming that federal constitution to, which for twenty years Rosas had been the great obstacle. And thus is crushed, the tyrant leaves them.

The effect of his exit in England was to cause an advance of twenty-seven per cent in the market value of the Buenos Ayres bonds.

The Outrages by the Chilian Convicts.

A few weeks since a report was received that two or three vessels had been seized by the convicts belonging to one of the Chilian colonies. One of the vessels was the American three masted schooner Florida. The last arrival from the Pacific brings some further particulars. A correspondent of the New York Commercial writing from Valparaiso, Feb. 25, says:

This month has brought shocking intelligence from the straits of Magellan.

Cape, from the Chilian colony planted at Fort Hulmes. Three used for penal purposes and including the garrison with the prisoners, the last accounts give the population at two hundred and eighty-eight persons. Near the close of December, mutiny occurred, headed by a lieutenant. The Governor, an aspiring man, named Manuel Cazmon, escaped with his life, in company with the priest and a few others to the shores of the Straits. There they wandered about for many days, living on shell fish and suffering every hardship. At length they were compelled by want to return to the colony. Instead of being treated with compassion on account of the most merciless cruelty. A fire was kindled to burn the Governor alive. He begged to be spared such a horrible death asking that he might be shot instead. This request was granted, but after shooting him they burned his remains, dancing and singing around the fire.

An American vessel under charter from this place, sent by the Government—the barque Florida—arrived while the Governor was wandering in such distress. Immediately she was seized. The owner, Mr Shaw of New Orleans, who was on board, was shot, without any provocation, and the captain was spared only that he might navigate the vessel. Also a British vessel, the Elsie Cornish, underwent the same fate. Her captain, Jones, was shot dead on the deck, with his wife and child looking on. The vessel was then taken to Port Famine, where the convicts left Florida and the Elsie Cornish, which they had plundered from Valparaiso.

The vessels of the Pacific Steam Navigation Company, which touch at Port Famine, have been warned by the authorities of Chili, not to allow any of the convicts to take passage in them, on pain of being fired into.

In the House—On motion of Mr. McLaughlan, the Speaker presented a communication from the Secretary of the Interior relative to the...and expenses of courts.

Mr. Stuart asked a consideration of the motion to table the motion to reconsider the rejection of the Senate bill relative to punishments in the Navy.

Mr. Jones of Tennessee, stated that if the gentleman was anxious for a debate upon the subject, he would withdraw his motion to lay upon the table the motion for reconsideration. The question then recurring on the reconsideration of the rejection—

Mr. Stuart said he was not disposed to discuss the subject at the present time, but would let it go over, to enable the House to go into committee of the whole on the private calendar.

Mr. Daniel moved that the subject be postponed until Tuesday next—agreed to. He likewise moved that the bouse resolve itself into committee, and proceed to the consideration of private bills.

Mr. Allison moved to go into Committee on the Rousseau bill. The motion was lost, the question being on Mr. Daniels' motion. Mr. Penn claimed the floor for a speech on the bill reported yesterday, granting the right of way and land to Iowa for a road from Davenport to Council Bluff, and from Keokuk to Dubuque. Mr. Penn then proceeded to address the House in support of the bill. He spoke at considerable length, and, in conclusion, moved the previous question on committing the bill and, it negatived, that the bill might then be put upon its passage. The previous question was seconded, and the bill committed by a vote of 115 to 90.

The House then went into Committee on the Private Calendar, and went through forty-six bills, and reported nineteen. Adjourned until Monday.

Maine Legislature.

AUGUSTA, April 2.

In the Senate—Bill to authorize the city of Bangor to loan its credit to the Kennebec and Penobscot R. R. Co. was recommitted on motion of Mr. Hancock of Bangor.

The Speaker announced Messrs. Joy of Limington, Smith of Calais, Turner of Poland, Talbot of Lebec, Dunn of Portland, Batchelder of Cornish, and Furbish of Newcastle, as the committee on the part of the House, on an order introduced by Mr. Joy of Limington, relative to ascertaining the time when the joint standing committees could make their final report.

Resolves in relation to the State Lands, came up on their final passage. Mr. Foster of Eastmachias, asked if it could be in order to move an amendment in this stage of the resolve.

The Speaker said it would not be.

Mr. Foster said he was then in favor of the recommitment of the resolves. The resolves brought up the practical question whether the State of Maine could bring into market the lands of the State infavorable times for sale. There was a threat to Massachusetts embodied in the resolves, and she would not treat with us in reference to the lands owned in common with ourselves. Mr. Foster moved to recommit.

Mr. Gilman of Hallowell, opposed the recommitment.

After some further debate in which Mr. Foster of East Machias opposed the passage of the resolves, and Mr. Buzzell of Limerick advocated their final passage, the resolves finally passed.

Mr. Quimby, from the Judiciary Committee, reported a bill to incorporate the Penobscot steam flour mill company—read and to-morrow assigned.

Mr. Grover from the Committee on Fisheries, reported a bill additional to an act to secure the rights of fishermen relative to the destruction of menhaden fish, approved Aug. 1848. Read and to-morrow assigned.

Mr. Woodman from the committee on interior waters, reported leave to withdraw on the petition of Thomas S. Brown and als, relative to the Penobscot boom. Accepted.

Mr. Talbot of Lubec called up the bill concerning the Supreme Judicial Court and its jurisdiction, (the bill to abolish the District Courts) offered an amendment not important to the merits of the bill, which was adopted, when the bill on motion of Mr. Chipman of Biddeford, was laid on the table.

The bill to incorporate the town of Farmingdale was received from the Senate, amended by striking out a provision respecting the mayor.

The bill was then passed to be engrossed.

Finally Passed—Resolve in favor of Dead River Road.

Dalley's Animal Galvanic

IS a remedy for all diseases of Horses, which is the farmer and Ostler's friend, and those having the care of Horses and Cattle, as it is an animal impregnated. This medicine is not a mere quackish nostrum, but is based upon the principles of the Physiological science, and is a truthful friend and physician.

The great superiority of Dalley's Animal Galvanic, are as follows:

Its prominent feature, and which no other article can claim, is Dalley's (world renowned) Pain Extractor, combined, TO CONQUER INFLAMMATION.

In all cases of Sore Throat, it will rub on at the neck, and subdue all inflammation in a short time. And consequently a speedy cure most naturally follows. The Genuine can be obtained only of our authorized Agents.

Dalley's Magical Pain Extractor.

It has been used by thousands with the most signal success.

It has never in a single instance been known to fail.

It has been tried successfully in cases that baffled the skill of the most learned in the profession.

The physician knows it—men of sensibility and candor admit it—the truly learned, honest, and philanthropic use, recommend, and speak well of it—the ignorant and narrow-minded repudiate it—and the selfish and indolent, while they condemn the article, order its proper name, reap the benefit from its properties by its daily use.

This article, which with the Galvanic has become a household words, and household goods of ...ion by Rail Road and Steamer from Portland ...

Whig and Courier.

John S. Sayward, Editor.

WEDNESDAY, April 7, 1852.

The Presidency.

Mr. Cabell of Florida, has put forth his manifesto in the form of a letter, regarding the Whig candidate for the Presidency, and, like too many other essays in the same direction, it does not stop at an unpretending preference for a particular candidate, and a statement of reasons why such candidate should be nominated and supported, the only true and common sense method of treating the subject, but an effort is made to beat down other whigs, and to set up a standard by which all shall be governed. This is no way to harmonize the whig party. This is no way to secure the success of the Whig party. This is no way to conduct the preliminary campaign of the Presidency. The Whigs of the country have their preferences for men among good and true Whigs. They have their views of policy, and availability in the candidates among the Whigs. These are all legitimate subjects of consideration and discussion, and the views of the Whigs in each section of the country may and ought to be fully drawn out and canvassed before a final decision be made by the Whig National Convention. All this may be done without engendering bitterness or enmity in the Whig party.

The Whigs of Maine, for instance, are very strongly and almost unanimously in favor of Gen. Winfield Scott as the Whig candidate. They believe him to be an upright, patriotic, high-minded and accomplished Whig, earnestly solicitous for the welfare of the whole country. They believe him to be on the whole, the most available candidate, because he is a man who is well known and favorably known to the country, and less prejudices have been excited against him, than against the other candidates named. They believe that Gen. Scott may be elected on the general principles and policy of the Whig party, on its general confidence and sentiment. But, it is not necessary for them, nor would it be right for them to endeavor in zealously enforcing their sentiments in favor of Gen. Scott to strike down Mr. Fillmore, or Mr. Webster, or any other true and tried Whig. Instead of strengthening their favorite candidate by any such course, they would inevitably weaken his prospects and lessen the chances of his nomination and election.

The arguments in favor of Gen. Scott may and ought to be brought out upon their own merits. His fitness for the high office of President, does not depend upon the unfitness of others, for the fitness, ability and patriotism of all the prominent Whig candidates is admitted, and should be by every whig. The question, and the only real question between them, among whigs, should be as to their availability, their prospects of success in the election.

Instead of pursuing this straight forward and conciliatory course, leaving every whig free to adopt and vote for the nominee of the National Convention, there seems to be a determination to introduce special issues regarding measures, and special efforts to traduce men. Mr. Cabell insists upon the specific approval of the Compromise measures, and will not be satisfied with the fact and the declaration that no whig North propose to disturb those measures, but let them remain as they find them, and as they do other laws. This is as far as the Whigs at the South ought to expect the Whigs at the North to go, and on this platform all can stand in confidence and safety. More than this ought not to be insisted upon, and ought not to be granted. On the other hand there are whigs North who take equal, if not greater, pleasure in scouting down Mr. Fillmore than in securing the success of the whig cause.

If these differences are to be continued, there can be no hope of union, but the party becomes broken by their own dissensions, and throws away a victory which it might easily secure, and legislate measures which it might confer upon the country.

Is it not about time, for the Whigs to abandon the talk one with another, and one section with another, that if their favorite candidate cannot succeed under such circumstances they shall dictate, that no Whig shall succeed.

Is it not the part of common prudence for all to yield their extreme points for the good of the cause, and to reach a plan on which all can stand, and thus effect a union of the Whigs for the sake of the Union?

Certain it is, that a much longer continuance in a course of obstinate dictation and self-will must inevitably result in severing the Whig party. Let each section then, take care of its own local interests and affairs, and strengthen itself, but upon the question where all sections are to act together, in order to any favorable results, let the platform be broad enough to accommodate all, and all consent to the occupancy of such common ground. This is the only true course for no sane man can expect that the Whigs of any one section of the country, are to act by the compulsion of the Whigs of any other section.

The concessions must be material and considerable, and they can be without a sacrifice of principle, or without violation of practical measures.

Call for the Democratic Whig Convention to nominate candidates for Governor and Members of the Legislature.

The Democratic Whig Republican Free-soil Party of the County of Kennebec, Notwithstanding all the Fusion, &c.

CASTLEVILLE, Cal., Feb. 27, 1852.

To the Editor of the Whig and Courier

Our community on this coast is just now on the eve of an excitement on the slavery question, which will not be without interest to you in the older states. For more than a year past, great dissatisfaction has been felt on the part of our non-producing immigrants from the sunny South of your borders. Unaccustomed to labor themselves at their places of former residence, they have found not only that efforts were not to be picked up here, but that they have been shorn of their strength and become weak as other men, if not more so, without their negroes.

In consequence, they have been spending their time in nothing else but other to tell or to learn some new scheme, by which the peculiar institution, might be transplanted to our shores. Nothing systematically planned has, however, been matured into still effect. It is a fact that a terror of abolitionists has been everywhere diffused throughout political circles. No free exists here, which has not been warped with to create a favorable public sentiment suited to their purposes, but at present the ball is fairly in motion. In and out of the legislature, in church (the Methodist South especially) and state, no stone is now left unturned to carry out the designs.

While a petition, signed very numerously in S. Carolina and Georgia by planters, offering to come with 200 slaves, and asking for permission to labor, is awaiting the action of our Legislature, the good steamer Isabel (Morrison & Co. Agents,) is transporting those interesting fellows and their posses from Charleston to Havana, and "500 missionaries" of the "church south," are also on their way soon to arrive and join the six already here, to occupy the waste places of Zion as propagandists of slavery.—They come, too, into the communities of our hard-working northern and eastern miners, where they have no members of their communion, and here to work in favor of their peculiar views. Long accustomed to the adroit arts of the South, our people are often led away by the fair sentiments they meet with, and memorials have been brought to unite with favor upon such a movement because suited to various projects and purposes of which they are passionately fond. To explain in our filing we have nearly sixty, I suppose, of the "fair sex." Of these, some love the dance, others, &c., more than they love home, or church; and these, coming from the North, too, in many instances, find much favor with the females of the South.

It is curious to note the fondness of the Jews for slaves. Hon. Judah, leader of the southern faction of the "unterrified" democracy, now in Convention at Sacramento for the purpose of electing delegates to the Baltimore caucus, is a Jew and owns very many of the leaders in the movement now going on. Broderick is a Know-nothing, but is unfortunately in the minority, the vote yesterday standing 64 to 100.

The "drought" is very great just now, much as it was a few years ago. The latter rains in March and April will in all likely, relieve the agriculturist. Miners, I am satisfied, must depend on canals, ditches and artificial reservoirs for a supply of water in their operations, and even farmers to a great extent will do so, where a succession of crops is desired.—The wealth of this country as an agricultural region is just beginning to be developed.

Arrivals late, very numerous of late. I am sorry to note that not a few come hither with moral notions which they would be ashamed to show at the East. A man and woman just arrived on from Michigan, recently attempted to make me, by argument, that they might innocently do things here which would be sinful if done at home; such as working on the Sabbath, &c. And I have ever found much more of such dispositions in those just from the East than in others.

CITY AFFAIRS.

Appointed Stillman T. Washburn, Watchman.

Messrs. G. F. Sargent and Geo. M. Rankin, petitioners, severally appointed their licenses granted them in May last, authorizing them to sell liquors for medicinal and mechanical purposes, &c., &c., authorized two to do.

☞ The Whig and Courier says that the Loco Foco papers in Maine are trying to make political capital out of the Mormon movement. Why, bless your soul, the Mormons are democrats to a man, and they are the only people who have ever made a practical application of the doctrine of "squatter sovereignty."

Secret Mission.

The mystery of manufacturing Russia sheet iron has been a most profound secret within the Russian dominions for many years, and very many thousands of dollars have been expended in the effort to discover the mode of its manufacture, or to invent some process by which to make the same kind of iron. Very large rewards have been offered in England to stimulate curiosity, and to quicken the inventive genius. Approaches have been made to the excellence of the manufacture, but no one has succeeded in obtaining the necessary information to secure the production of an article of the same character, value and beauty with that produced in Russia, if we except the claim now set up by some of our countrymen in Pennsylvania. A memorial has been presented to Congress by F. J. H. Stineburg, & Co., of Pittsburg, Pa., and others in St. Louis, claiming that they have acquired the process of manufacturing Russia sheet iron, but that under the patent laws they cannot obtain a patent, as they are not the inventors, the mode being the same as that by which the article is manufactured in Russia. They represent that, unless a special act of Congress secures to them for a limited period the exclusive manufacture of the article, rival establishments would spring up in the United States, and that the competition thereby endangered would prevent them from realizing an adequate remuneration for their labor and expense of procuring the process, &c. They contend that the manufacture in this country would greatly cheapen the article and bring it into general use.

Maine Legislature.

AUGUSTA, April 3.

In the Senate—Resolve granting $2300 to the East Maine Conference Seminary at Bucksport, was taken up. Mr. Spinney moved to reduce the sum to $1000.

The amendment was negatived—yeas 10, nays 16. On motion of Mr. Carlton, the same was reduced to $1500, 12 to 10. The resolve was passed to be engrossed, yeas 18, nays 6.

Bill to incorporate the Lumbermen's Bank at Oldtown, was laid on the table.

Bill to extend the time for locating and building the Somerset and Kennebec Railroad, was called up by Mr. Bell.

Mr. Bayley moved to strike out the south-easterly line and insert Winslow."

Mr. Leavitt opposed the motion, contending that this is a measure reasonable and just. It cannot hurt the Penobscot road, but may help the Somerset. It is a dog in the manger business to object to this bill, or amend it as proposed. Mr. L. opposed the amendment at length.

After some further discussion, the amendment was withdrawn by the mover, and the bill passed to be engrossed.

Mr. Titcomb called up the report of the Committee on Accounts on the printer's accounts for publishing Fire Hanking Act, being additional rest of accounts, No. 32.

Mr. Boynton opposed the resolve on the ground of the extravagant amount of the bills, especially in the case of the Argus and Advertiser, where the charge is for publication in the weekly, tri-weekly and daily. He moved to amend so as to allow each publisher $80, and where there were subsequent publications in the same office $15 each.

Mr. Bell opposed the motion as unjust and disproportionate.

Mr. Mennyk took a similar view. The printers have charged the same as they charged individuals. He did not approve of the Legislature ordering the bill published, but as it has been done we must pay the bills.

Mr. Bell said the State has created an indebtedness, and must now repudiate it. It is not right to take the ground that, we have the power and will pay what we please.

Mr. Boynton said this is a thankless task. Printers are like doctors and lawyers; their bills have to be allowed. He knew not as it was in the history of legislation to cut down a printer's bill.

Mr. Carlton denied that the act was intended to be published in any but weekly papers.

The amendment was negatived—yeas 10, nays 12.

The Senate receded and concurred in passing the resolve to be engrossed, yeas 12, nays 10.

Passed to be engrossed—Bill to incorporate Bangor Fire Insurance Company; resolve authorizing the sale of lot No. 12, Letter D, W. E. L., S.; to incorporate North Penobscot Agricultural Society; to incorporate Wallip Mills Co.; to incorporate Lumbermen's Bank, in Oldtown; resolve authorizing the Governor and Council to settle on equitable terms certain liabilities arising out of assessments of taxes; bill to change the name of certain persons; giving leave to Caleb Haskell to extend a wharf into tide waters; to secure the rights of firemen; to incorporate Brunswick Mining Company.

In the House—On motion of Mr. Hancock of Bangor, Wednesday next, at eleven o'clock was assigned for the further consideration of the report of bills, &c., in relation to the militia law.

Mr. Chapman of Biddeford called up the bill entitled an act concerning the supreme Court and its jurisdiction, abolishing the District Court.

Mr. Dunn moved the yeas and nays on the passage of the bill to be engrossed.

The motion to lay upon the table and assign Wednesday next, was carried—yeas 67, nays 57.

Passed to be engrossed—An act to incorporate the Penobscot Steam Mill Company; an act additional to the 157th chap. of the Revised Statutes, relating to betterments.

An act relating to the Attorney General, his Deputies and County Attorneys, was assigned for consideration on Wednesday next at 11 o'clock.

On motion of Mr. Cleaves of Bridgton, ordered, that the committee on State Lands and State Roads be instructed to inquire into the expediency of selling all or part of the public lands, held in severalty by the State of Maine or in common with Massachusetts, and the proceeds arising from said sales, to be appropriated to the several cities, towns and plantations within this State, according to the number of scholars returned to the Secretary of State in the year 1851—said appropriations to constitute and make a permanent school fund in each city, town and plantation within this State, and the interest arising from said funds to be appropriated yearly for the exclusive benefit of primary schools within our respective towns and plantations.

Mr. Woodman of Sherman introduced a resolve directing the treasurer of the State to issue his warrant in favor of Alden Gilman for $45,000 for the Reform School, to be taken at 3 o'clock P. M., April 13. It was debated by Messrs. Woodman, Baker and Irish in favor, and Messrs. Chapman, Dunn and others in opposition. A vote was taken on the table, prevailed, 47 to 33. (The resolve was consequently adopted.)

Mr. Leighton introduced the following order:

Ordered, That the superintendent of State Reform School should cause to be sold on or before the first day of June next, all the land belonging to said State Reform School, except the farm now occupied by the superintendent, and the pasture lot lying on the north side of the road leading from the Reform School to the Bangor and Piscataquis Railroad.

Mr. Hamblen, Bangor, Bailey, Caddy and Hancock, Bangor, Hall, Orono, and Hayden, Hampden, were appointed a committee to report a bill to incorporate the Penobscot Boom Company.

TO THE DAILY WHIG AND COURIER

Connecticut Election!

HARTFORD, April 6.

The telegraphic despatches received from Connecticut render it probable that the Loco ticket has succeeded in the election of State officers, and they have probably carried the legislature, by a majority of 15 or 18 on joint ballot. The loco party, as is usual in this State, added the rum keg to their platform and strove for "democracy" and rum.

Seymore is supposed to be elected by the people.

Severe Storm in New York and Boston.

NEW YORK, April 6.

There is a severe storm raging here this afternoon, extending east to Boston and Portland.

Mayor's Election.

PORTLAND, Tuesday Evening.

A. K. Parris, democrat, is elected Mayor over Neal Dow, whig. Parris 1890. Dow, 1498. Scat. 6, without Islands. Four democratic Aldermen to 3 whigs. Eleven democratic Councilmen to 9 whigs. One vacancy.

WASHINGTON, April 8.

It is contemplated to appoint a select committee of the House, to receive all the different bills granting lands in aid of railroads, carefully examine them, and report upon their merits.

WASHINGTON, April 2.

Humphrey Marshall of Kentucky, is out in a letter declaring Fillmore the choice of the Whigs of that State, and that Scott has no chance whatever.

WHIG NATIONAL CONVENTION. The Philadelphia North American of Friday, states that the Whigs of the Senate would meet on Saturday, to make the necessary arrangements for a joint reference with the House Whigs, on some day of next week, to fix definitely the time and place of meeting of the National Convention.

The latest news from the Mormon settlement at Salt Lake was brought through by five Americans, who left about the 20th November. Their verbal account shows the affairs of Salt Lake to be very flourishing; that the money market, (like some members in this region) was awful tight, and no sale for the late crops—chiefly of wheat and vegetables—while meat was very high. The Deseret News of Nov. 15th, represents the country as flourishing and prosperous.—Alta California.

THE MAINE STANDING AND STATE REFERENCE BOOK. Hallowell: Masters, Smith, & Co., 1852.

Mr. George B. Smith, Bookseller, of this city, has laid upon our table a copy of this work. It is well arranged and highly convenient hand book of the interesting facts regarding the rival offices, population, institutions, courts, and statistics of resources and other matters of general concern. This work will be found very convenient for business men and professional men. It seems to have been compiled with much care, and gives, in a condensed form, a view of the great interests of the State.

Geo. R. Smith has the volume for sale.

THE POETICAL FATE BOOK, OR THE NEW FORTUNE TELLER. Boston: James Monroe & Co.

This is a very neat volume of seventy nine pages. It contains eleven questions of interest to most persons, and to each question there are thirty answers culled from the poets from which to choose for the person asking the question. It is a pleasant volume for the recreation of a social circle, and for occasional use at the family fireside.

This volume, may be obtained at the Bookstore of Messrs. D. F. Burr & Co.

A GOOD EXAMPLE. The Prince President of France recently invited Lord Cowley, the new English Ambassador at Paris, to dine with him on the Sabbath. For Louis Napoleon, and for the French nation, this was perfectly in keeping.—But Lord Cowley did not forget his allegiance to the Lord of the Sabbath. He promptly declined the proffered honor, on the ground that he did not attend public dinners on the first day of the week. The case is the more marked, from the fact that this dinner was intended to be a first and formal reception of the representative of England. The President subsequently changed the day.

GREAT ADVANTAGE AND A REAL BLESSING

Dalley's Animal Galvanic

IS claimed by its inventor, its proposed mode of which—to the Farmer and Owner of horses having charge of Horses and Cattle, are of the most importance. This opinion is formed upon the fullest trials and publications of the great properties of Dalley's Animal Galvanic, are few but positive.

Its prominent feature, and which no other article excepting Dalley's (world renowned) Pain Extractor possesses,—TO CONQUER INFLAMATION.

In its notice it is power to, and possesses the properties of forcibly and rapidly drawing from the blood, and ejecting all impure matter from all wounds to which it is applied, thereby restoring them to a healthy tone, and consequently a speedy and perfect cure.

The diseases of Swelling, if certain relief and abscesses and ulcerations in a short time. And consequently a speedy cure and a cure generally is effected.

The Genuine can be obtained only of our advertised Agents.

Dalley's Magical Pain Extractor.

It has been used by thousands with the most signal effect.

It has never in a single instance been known to fail.

It has been tried and found wanting by those that find the skill of the most learned in the profession and pronounced, unconscionable, and by candor admit it—the truly learned, honest, and philanthropic use, recommended, and used by—the ignorant and narrow-minded empiric and the selfish and dishonest, while they condemn the article under its proper name, are the first to make application for it. This article, which with the greatest ease, will come as household words and household goods in Dalley's Genuine Pain Extractor.

Its friends are the Millions and its enemies, the ignorant, the bigoted, the selfish and the criminal counterfeiter.

The honest and unsuspecting are imposed upon by the latter, who hallooing endangers the life of the confiding, (for this mere lake of words) I leave it to a discerning and candid public to decide what punishment the perpetrator of so heinous crime who could inflict pain as well as suffering, as to deprive him of a (selfish avarice, for its mere sake of benefiting his own pocket).

A Certificate.

BANGOR, June 8, 1850.

THIS certifies that I have been acquainted with sore and inflamed eyes, and having used several kinds of Rub Water without any beneficial effect, was induced to try that of HAMMAN'S FINE WATER, which entirely cured them, and having cured five cases of sore eyes in this vicinity, I can recommend it to the world as the best article ever known for the eyes.

I have used it in my own family for Inflammation, and it has never failed to cure.
